

Cambridge Butterfly Conservatory

Thursday, May 21, 2026

TOUR OVERVIEW

Enjoy a refreshing day filled with colour, nature, and a touch of springtime inspiration. Begin with a visit to the Cambridge Butterfly Conservatory, where you will explore the warm, tropical habitat home to thousands of free flying butterflies, lush plants, and exotic birds. After your self guided stroll, we will continue to a nearby restaurant for an included lunch. This relaxing outing blends natural wonder with a delightful spring experience, a wonderful way to embrace the arrival of the season.
